OLD WOMAN TORTURED BY MASKED MEN

Bound to Her Chair in a Lonely Staten Island Farm House, She Is Beaten and Threatened with Hot Irons by the Miscreants.

Disappointed in Their Quest, the Robbers Leave Her Tied Fast

Two men entered the home of aged a small farm at Eltingville, S. I., Saturday, bound her to a leg of the kitchen stove and tortured her with blows and that she had anything worth stealing hour old when Bellevue was reached. the thieves almost turned the house infound by a farm hand an hour later.

and the ill-treatment to which she had the child. been subjected, but prompt medical at- The inc is in a lonely location, hidden from sight from the road. Because of her mode of life there have been many stories on the location of life there have been many stories and nurses were soon busy given the child is stronger than the usual road in the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road in the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses are deceptive.

Not a single one of the other nurses were soon busy given the new arrival a meal. Apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon to be apparently the child is stronger than the usual road nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be a single one of the nurses were soon to be of life there have been many stories about her in the neighborhood. It was whispered that she had a lot of money hidden somewhere about the house.

It is supposed that tramps loating about the section heard these ramors Dr. Sherer expects that his incu Little difficulty was experienced in forcing an entrance. Mrs. Bowers heard the men at work, and confronted them in her living room. They overpowered they would kill her unless she revealed where she had the treasure concealed. Threatened Her with Hot Irons.

Although terribly frightened, Mrs Bowers kept her nerve. She insisted that she had nothing worth stealing and asked the men to release her and go on their way. In answer to this they threatened to start a fire in the stove heat irons, sear her feet and put out

Again she protested that there was nothing of value in the house. The nen did go so far as to start a fire in the stove, but they contented themselves with beating the old woman and trying to break her down by awful threats of their intentions. oMre than an hour was spent in the effort to make

They ripped her bed to pieces, pulled out stuff from closets and corners. VAN COTT NOT TO even tore up the floors in places where they thought there might be likelihood of a miser hiding articles of value away When they finished their hunt the hous ooked as though a tornado had been at work on the interior. While the two were at work on the inside two other men stood guard at th gate. They were seen by persons who were passing, but no attention was paid o them, and they had disappeared from he neighborhood before the alarin was he neignpornous between the neignpornous between the new had departed from Erdle, employed by Mrs. Bowers about the place, entered the house and found her bound, garged and almost unconscious. Instead of going to the police with the story Erdle delayed until yesterday, when it was too late to get the policy of the miscreants.

BODY OF WOMAN FOUND IN RIVER.

In One of the Hands Was Firmly Held a Set of False false teeth clasped firmly in one hand, the body of a woman, apparently about fifty years old, was found to-day at Pier 6, North River, near the foot of Rector street, by Policeman Minnerly of the Church street station.

The woman was about five feet in height and had light complexion and red hair. The clothes were a black and white spotted waist, a black skirt, laced sinces and black stockings. Coroner Goldenkranz ordered the body removed to the Morgue.

With the upper portion of a set of

SHIPPING NEWS.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAY.

4.28 Sun sets., 7.34 Moon rises., 2.23 THE TIDES. High Water,
A.M. P.M.

Bandy Hook. 4.31 5.08

Gevernor's Island 4.43 5.28

Bell Gate Ferry 6.36 7.27

PORT OF NEW YORK.

INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

BABY EIGHT INCHES LONG

Born To-Day to Clara Pautuana, and Dr. Sherer Thinks that He Can Raise It in an Incubator.

ator at Bellevue Hospital s taking care of another one-pound baby. This she is perfectly formed and Dr. Sherer has strong hopes of keeping her alive until she reaches the normal stage of

The child was born to-day to Clara Pautuana, of No. 211 East One Hundred WAS REPUTED TO BE A MISER and Second street. Dr. Hoyt officiated at the arrival of the little one. He saw life of the baby if it should be left with the mother and told Papa Pautuana to Pautuana did not know where Bellevue as; he said he was afraid he couldn't and She Is Almost Dead from was; he said he was alraid he couldn't find his way. Then Jennie Rogoninie, s Exhaustion When Discovered, girl of the neighborhood, who had been siping the mother with the household duties, volunteered to go to the hos pital with the new arrival. Dr. Heyt packed the little one in cot n batting, wrapped it in a quilt, and onfided it to the care of Jennie Rogo stove and tortured her with blows and threats. Unable to force her to admit that the baby was but a little over an side out in a search. Finally they went that she had a baby in the bundle and away, leaving her bound, where she was wanted it put in the "steam box." An She was very weak from the shock vilion, where Dr. Sherer took charge of

IN POSTAL SCANDAL.

Mrs. Martha J. Lorenz Named in Conspiracy Charge with Machen and Others.

WASHINGTON, June 22 .- The Grand iry which has been investigating postal ffairs to-day returned an indictment against August W. Machen, Diller B. Groff, Samuel A. Groff, George E. Loenz and Martha J. Lorenz, the two latr being residents of Toledo, O. As stated in these despatches the specific charge is conspiracy to deraud the Government.

The indictment is based on section 5440 of the Revised Statutes, which provides an hour was spent in the effort to make her tell where the rumored heard was to be found.

During all this time Mrs. Bowers had called for help, but the robbers knew evidently that there was no chance of her voice being heard. Finally convinced that they would be unable to get her to tell them anything, they started on a systematic search of the house.

Almost Wrecked House.

GO TO WASHINGTON,

Postmaster Denies that He Has Been Called on to Explain Anything.

Postmaster Van Cott emphatically denied to-day that any official in Washington-either the President or the officials Post-Office Department-had summoned him to Washington; nor had any one written to him that it was well for him to visit Washington to explain matters to the Department.

plain. The Department called for a redesignated as cashlers and finance clerks, which I sent and which they received Saturday. The report is very full and I could add nothing to it if I were there. I know of no other business that would call me to Washington at this time." port from me on the forty-eight men

STILL PROBING POSTAL FRAUDS.

Brooklyn Grand Jury Finds that Witnesses Are Suffering from Loss of Memory.

The Brooklyn Federal Grand Jury

Tuesday into the alleged postal frauds No. 66 East One Hundred and Twelfth in the Brooklyn Post-Office, As far as street. Manhattan. could be learned from those in charge f the inquiry the information obtained as the mother's condition was preup to the present time is of little value, carious Dr. Goldwater summoned Dr. as the majority of the witnesses ex- Schwerd, of No. 13 West One Hundred amined have suffered from complete and Twentieth street, to his assistance.

It was said in the office of the United States District-Attorney to-day that witnesses would be called before the Grand Jury this afternoon from the Grand Jury the Grand J whose testimony important results were expected. District-Attorney Young re-

FUNERAL STOPPED BY

THOMAS FOXHALL

So Many Strange Circumstances Surround Mrs. Snyder's Death That the Authorities Interfere and Order an Autopsy.

orney Jerome, County Physician Mc-Mr. Jerome's office to attend the au-

The interment of Mrs Snyder wa bout to take place in the Cedar Lawn emetery, near Passaic, yesterday when t was suddenly stopped by request of oroner Scholer. The body was first placed in ult and then quietly removed to an ndertaking establishment, where it will his investigation.

The attention of Coroner Scholer was called to the case in time to enable him to telephone to the New Jersey authorities to stop the burlal. Though the orders of the Coroner were obeyed it was not until late in the evening that the relatives of the dead woman learned that the body they hadfollowed to the cemetery had not been permittd to remain there. The removal from the cemetery to the undertaking shop was not accomplished until the relatives of the dead woman had withdrawn.

Coroner Considers It Suspicious. Coroner Scholer, who has investigated the circumstances surrounding Mrs. Snyder's death, said to-day that he believed that the District-Attorney would find sufficient evidence upon which to base a criminal prosecution. If Mr.

city, and the Coroner's attention was lirected to the case by an anonymous etter the following day.

"I knew Mrs. Cora Snyder and admired ther sincerely," said Coroner Scholer. "Until a year ago she lived at No. 313 west Forty-eighth street, next door my own home, "Determined to solve the mystery, I went to the Board of Health and examined the transcripts covering "See far as I know," said the Post-the deaths of last week. I found master, "there is nothing for me to exnight at No. 160 East Eighty-fourth street, and that Undertaker Lucas, of No. 1294 Third avenue, according to the certificate, had removed the body for burial.

Surprise to Undertaker.

"Ten minutes later I had Undertaker Lucas on the telephone. But he knew nothing of the case, had not removed the body and was indignant over the use of his name in the certificate. Then went to the house in East Eightyourth street, where I found an aged midwife, Mrs. Brechtel, who reluctantly made a statement. She told me in the presence of Detective Lynch, of the East Eighty-eighth Street Station, that home on June 6. "The men, she said, were Thomas Foxcontinued to-day the investigation begun hall, of Passaic, and Dr. Goldwater, of two men brought Mrs. Snyder to her

ALMOST A RIOT | "I'VE WON," AMONG PASTORS SAM PARKS

Ministers Anxious to Hear the Rev. R. J. Campbell, of London, Push and Jostle Each neetings in this city in a long time was eld to-day in the Assembly Hall of the Presbyterian Building. No. 156 Fifth It was a union meeting o ergymen to hear the Rev. Reginald hn Campbell, of the City Temple The enthusiasm was remark ble, and the crowd was so great there near being a riot.

Campbell was to have addressed wo meetings of clergymen to-day, but wing to the fact that he is not in robus realth he felt compelled to cancel one ngagement. He was to have addressed he Methodist Preachers' meeting at 11 clock, at No. 150 Fifth avenue, and at 2 o'clock was to cross Twentieth street Fifth avenue. In making the arrange ients for the latter meeting three ministerians, the Baptists and the Congre rationalists. The large assembly hal on the eighth floor usually used by he Presbyterian Ministers' Association One Meeting Abandoned.

Mr. Campbell sent word early to-day that he would not be able to make two ddresses and he would be compelled to terians accordingly asked the Methodist not arrive until nearly 12 o'clock, and ly hall was packed. Many women were present, but most of the men in the hall ere clergymen. It was estimated that about 800 clergymen were present, and nany were turned away.

Several hymns were sung in mighty thorus, and during the singing Mr. Some little difficulty was experienced in orcing a way through the crowd.

When Dr. Campbell stepped to the front the big audience applauded him or more than a minute. Mr. Campbell said he had not intended to open his man Neldig, he's an old mouth while he was here, but as it had woman. We don't want any church appened he had found it impossible to keep his mouth shut.

At this point the efforts of the crowd fighting to get in caused such a disturbance that only those in the front seats could hear Dr. Campbell. It had been announced from the platform that no more could be allowed to enter the hall because of the insurance restrictions. Scores of people who were still outside the hall strove to get in, and the noise caused Dr. Campbell to stop for a moment and gave him an opportunity for a gentle rebuke and at the same time a joke.

What we want is a man who can get out and hurl a table or a chair when the occasion demands. I think if Kelly had had a square deal he would have been elected President.

Fought for His Rights.

"I certainly made a stiff fight for my rights and won out. They did their best to do me, but they couldn't, even when they brought in the police to help them. Sam Parks has shown the men

The Clergy Are Noisy.

'In England, it is said." he declared, hat the most disorderly meetings are "that the most disorderly meetings are those attended by clergymen."
He told of an overcrowded meeting in England where a similar scene had occurred. He had remarked to the sexton that he probably was not used to handling such a crowd. "Oh, yes," said the sexton, "and we had the same preacher, too, and everything went well, but then there were no ministers of the Gospei that I will win out again."

When the counting of the votes were not the counting that the votes were not the counting the votes were not the counting the votes were not the v plause and laughter and finally the year-old daughter by Thomas Foxhall, a Councilman of Passale and a man of wealth. She began her duties there a year ago.

Mrs. Snyder presided at the table, entertained Mr. Foxhall's guests and directed the daughter's musical studies.

Mrs. Snyder died last Friday night in the home of Mrs. Bechtoid, a midwife, at No. 160 East Eighty-fourth street, this city, and the Coroner's attention was directed to the case by an anonymous letter the following and the Coroner's attention was directed to the case by an anonymous letter the following and a man of spiritual outlook.

Dr. Campbell was again interrupted by more crowding at the door, and one clergyman expressed the feelings of his anonyed neighbors by asking the chairman of the highest four men will be selected. At 2 o'clock Parks had a total of 961 votes, while Massey had 971. The other candidates for walking delegate.

Dr. Campbell was again interrupted by more crowding at the door, and one clergyman expressed the feelings of his anonyed neighbors by asking the chairman of the chairman of the highest four men will be selected. At 2 o'clock Parks had a total of 961 votes, while Massey had 971. The other candidates for walking delegate.

Dr. Campbell was again interrupted by more crowding at the door, and one clergyman expressed the feelings of his anonyed neighbors by asking the chairman of the chairman of the chairman of the common of the commo

BUILDING TRADES LEADERS TO MEET.

Committee Will Make an Effort To-Night to Frame Terms for Peace.

At a meeting of the Board of Governors of the Building Trades Employers' Association held this afternoon a com- instantly killed to-day by falling five mittee was appointed to confer with a stories at her home. ommittee from the Board of Building submitted to the men by the employers and on the fourth floor her sister Mabel will be discussed and a lively time is was doing the same. Leaning out to expected.

The employers assert that some of the The employers assert that some of the unions have accepted the arbitration scheme without reserve. But the Board of Building Mechanics has a new arbitration scheme which will be presented and it differs radically from that advocated by the bosses.

Despite the differences it is probable that the meeting to-night will go a long way toward clearing the situation. The employers announce that they are willing to make wide conversions in the into make wide concessions in the erests of peace, and a compromise scheme of settling labor disputes may be agreed upon.

"One week ater a child was born, and HE TOOK REFUGE IN SUICIDE AT 70.

'Grandpa" Bade All His Little Street Friends Good-By and Then Hanged Himself.

whose testimony important results were expected. District-Attorney Young refused to discuss the investigation.

GRAND VIZIER

ESCAPES BOMBS,

Threatening Letters Followed by Attempt to Kill Sultan's Chief Official in Constantinople.

PARIS, June 22.—A despatch to the Rappel, dated from Budapest to-day, says a rumor is current that the palace of the Grand Vizier at Constantinople.

WATERTOWN, June 22.—For $200 cash and $50 for a trousseau Mrs. Hattle Wilder agreed to become the wife of the Grand Vizier at Constantinople william Crake, The trousseau was provided, but not the $200, so Mrs. Crake are both.

WATERTOWN, June 22.—For $200 cash and $50 for a trousseau was provided, but not the $200, so Mrs. Crake are wedding wardrobe. Crake are the wide of the correspondent says it is certain the Grand Vizier has received threatening letters and that a number of arrests as wore out a search warrant for the wardrobe. Tudge McConnell dismissed. Herman Popper, seventy years old, a mportant Paper Relating to Dynamite Bomb Outrage Discovered on Italian Prisoner Arrested for Robbery.

FIND NEW CLUE

A new clue to the mysterious attempt blow up the steamship Umbria by when the prisoners were arraigned be-fore Magistrate Breen, in Centre Street e remanded, as an important paper reating to the Umbria dynamite plot was found upon one of them. Magistrate Breen ordered the men held for twenty-four hours, and they are now indergoing the third degree at Police leadquarters.

ourt, the detectives asked that they

Robbery Below "Dead Line."

The robbery for which the men wer smiths' Union Announces arrested in connection with Joseph Barero, of Jersey City, and John Rosiere, that He Has Defeated of West Hoboken, was remarkably dar-His Foes in the Battle of long ago established as the dead line for crooks.

Mr. Bertolino is a banker at No. 322 John street, Elizabeth. On June 9 he came to this city to cash a check for $5,900 at the banking-house of Caesare Conti, No. 35 Broadway. The entrance to Conti's banking-house is through a hallway, and as Bertolino was carrying away the $6,600 in greenbacks in a money-bag he was set upon by four men and robbed.

and robbed.

He had no idea what had happened until he reached the street. One of the robters entered the hallway hurriedly and jostled against him. Two others who were in the hallway crowded him from either side and the fourth snatched the money bag and darted out. Mr. Bertolino was so confused that he did not know what had happened for several minutes. When he noticed him loss the quartet of highwaymen had disappeared.

Robbed by Fellow-Countrymen. to blow up the steamship Umbria by sending a dynamite bomb to the Cunard pier was unexpectedly obtained to-day by Headquarters Detectives Barnett and Livingston when they arrested Joseph Fignaro and George Bruno in connection with the robbery of A. Bertolino, a banker, of Elizabeth, N. J.

The nature of the evidence is carefully concealed by the Detective Bureau, but when the prisoners were arraigned before Magistrate Breen, in Centre Street.

Killed Brother-in-Law in Church. LANCASTER, Ky., June 22.—James Rogers killed Bud Ledford in Horman's Lick Church yesterday. They were brothers-in-law. Rogers claimed that he shot in self-defense.

Out-of-town people who intend visiting New York will save time and money by engaging their quarters by mail from among the list of Furnished Rooms and Apartments to Let Tuesday & Wed'sday Neckwear Dept.

50 dozen Extra Quality White Ascots. variety of patterns, 25 cts. each. Lace and Embroidery Stocks. 38c., 50c., 58c., 75c., value 50c. to $1.00.

Handmade Stocks to tie; colored centres and > 50 cts. each, formerly $1.95.

Also a clearing sale of Lace Yokes, Fancy Fronts and Fichus, at greatly reduced Lord & Taylor.

Vanilla Cocoanut Creams, lb Chocolate Greaoble Walnuts,

SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY.

Grenoble Walnut Kisses, lb.

Chocolate Strawberry Jelly, 54 BARCLAY ST.

29 CORTLANDT ST

DIED.
HAFNER.—On June 20, 1903, HENRY HAD

Funeral from her late residence, 51 Wood

Laundry Wants-Female.

MARKER and assorter wanted for laundry office, must be experienced. 1433 Bedford ave., B'klyn. WANTED—Collar and cuff ironers on machina. Model Laundry, 27 Fiest st., Brooklyn. WASHWOMAN WANTED, steady and sobers must understand starching. 269 26 ave. FIRST-GIASS family ironer who can starch shirts. Eclipse Laundry, 1110 3d ave., between 45th and 46th sts., Brooklyn.

STAROHER on ahirts, collars & cufs. 343 W. 14th st.

IRONERS—Three first-class shirt ironers and collar starchers who can iron their own work for the seashore. McCabe, 400 W. 36th st.

Collar starchers who can iron their own work for the seashore. McCabe, 409 W. 28ch st. 57 WANTED—Collar ironer; one who has experience on shaping. Pearl Hand Laundry, $2 WANTED ...

YOUNG GIRL to assist in marking and assorting and make herself useful. Folkestone Laundry, 587 Lexington ave.
GIRLS WANTED to work in steam laundry. and 18 Concord st., Brooklyh.

IRONERS WANTED, experienced on embroidered chams in factory. 110 E. 129th st., 5th floor.

IRONEER—Wanted, first-class family ironer. 1350 Madison ave., bet. 9th and 95th sts.

LAUNDRESS—Smart young woman as laundress, for family in country; wages $20 per months reference required. Apply at Summit Hotel, 141-143 Canal st.

WASHERWOMAN.

Laundry Wants-Male. BOY WANTED, with reference. Laundry, 1125 Park ave., between 90th-91st sts.

BOY WANTED, in laundry; wages $4; references required. Swan Laundry, 211 W. 64th.
BOY WANTED in laundry. Inquire 127 W., 100th 8t.

BOYS to collect and deliver laundry; reference, Domestic Laundry, 65 W. 101st st. Excursions.

HOPATCONG LAKE EXCURSION $1.00

Via New Jersey Central JUNE 28, 1903. Special train from foot of Liberty Street 8.30; A. M.; South Ferry, 8.25 A. M.

RIGHT,

DO

World. There's just one quick way to rent an apartment, and that is to advertise it. Sunday World Wants in

POWERFUL Pure Food Drink Has Great Sus-stronger and gained weight.

"Our family physician examined
Postum, and decided to use it altogether in place of coffee. We all think it has no equal as a nourish-ment for the sick, for, besides being pleasant to the taste, it is so strengthening. My father and mother have always been coffee drinkers and suffered all kinds of troubles from the coffee, until about a year ago a neighbor was praising Postum, and mother decided to try it.

e had been elected. "I feel fine over this," he said, though it is no more than I expected. All my friends stood by me, as I knew they would. As for these fakirs who ried to do me, they got left. The result of this election has just showed what Sam Parks can do.

Walking Delegate of House-

Ballots Over His Re-

Samuel J. Parks, the walking delegate cused of extortion, who has made such the Housesmiths and Bridgemen's

nion, was in a jubilant frame of mind

-day and declared emphatically that bitter fight to maintain his standing

Election.

"All this is what I call vindication. hese men would not get out and vote or me if they believed I was dishonest. members at the head of our union What we want is a man who can get them. Sam Parks has shown the men what he can do, and they recognize it. their wages from $1.50 a day to $4.50.

is to meet these criminal charges. I When the counting of the votes was This was greeted with prolonged apon the ticket, being 174 votes above ordered forthwith.

Mrs. Snyder was employed as house-keeper and companion to his eighteen-year-old daughter by Thomas Foxhall, a Councilman of Passale and a man as a Councilman of Passale and a man as a Councilman of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man of Passale and a man as a council man and 227 votes above the fourth man and 227 votes above the fourth man and 227 votes above the fourth man and 227 votes above as the fourth man and 227 votes ab the fifth man in the list of

FELL FROM WINDOW TO INSTANT DEATH.

Little Four-Year-Old Girl Leaned Out to Speak to Her Sister

on the Floor Below Viola Cody, four years old, living on the top floor of No. 239 East One Hundred and Thirteenth street, was almost

On each floor in the tenement-house Mechanics at 8 o'clock to-night. At this there are windows half up the stairway meeting the arbitration plan recently On the fifth floor Viola was looking out speak to her sister, Viola lost her balance and fell to the ground.

taining Power.

The sustaining power of Postum

when properly cooked is greater than most people imagine, and it is well illustrated in the story told by a young Texas woman, who says: "I almost lived on Postum Cereal Coffee for over a month, and there was over a week I did not eat anything at all, but just drank the food drink Postum, and yet I grew

"They improved at once and have drank Postum ever since, and mother, who used to be bothered with nervousness and sleeplessness particularly, is in splendid health now. She says the change came entirely from drinking Postum and leaving off coffee." Name given by Postum Co. Battle Creek, Mich.

H.O'Neill & Co. Four of the Season's Leaders in

Women's Suits At Very Special Prices.

WOMEN'S DAINTY LAWN SHIRT WAIST SUITS, waist made of alternate clusters of narrow and wide tucks, with pearl button trimming, skirts to match, with deep flounce..... Value, $7.50. WOMEN'S IRISH LINEN SHIRT WAIST SUITS, and combroidered on waist and skirt, in large designs, $19.75 heretofore $32.50..... WOMEN'S FOULARD SILK SHIRT WAIST SUITS, and silk fagoting, $13.75 skirt to match.....

Value, $18.00.

Value, $26.00.

The "Bangkok" Hat Decidedly the novelty of the Season, and shown by very few if any department stores up till now. They look exactly like the Panama; but come in the natural tone of the Bamboo. We show them in two shapes very stylishly trimmed with fruit, wings and birds at $7.48 to $15.00 Sold in exclusive Men's Hat Stores from $15.00 to Laces, Nets and Robes.

Fine Laces, all-over Nets and Robes-all much in demand and attractively priced for Tuesday. 400 pieces Point de Paris, Valenciennes, Margot, Repousse, 400 pieces roint de raris, valenciennes, rargot, acpousse, Cluny, Torchon, Florentine, Antique and other new washable LACES, in edgings, insertings, bandings and me-dallion effects—match patterns and odd widths—in cream, white, ecru, butter and Arabian shades, at per yard, 10c.,

Florentine LACE ALL-OVER NETS, 22 inches wide, )

Value, 20c., 30c. and 45c.

20c

white, butter and Arabian shades, also Renaissance LACE ALL-OVER NETS, 45 inches wide, in butter 68c and Arabian shades, at per yard..... Regular Price, $1.10. DUCK ROBES, Braided and Lace Trimmed, in white, pink, blue, tan, gray, cream, garnet and green, reduced to $ $3.40

TRIMMINGS-Persian Bands in new colorings and de- \ signs, reduced to, per yard....... Formerly $1.25.

Sixth Avenue, 20th to 21st Street.

Regular Price, $7.50.

R. H. Macy & Co.'s Attractions Are Their Low Prices.

The Original Department Store. Gowns Reduced.-4th PI.

Although all our imported and original model garments have already been subjected to liberal reductions, we have decided to make a final mark-down of twenty-five per cent. on all of them. They include the finest productions from Raudnitz, Paquin, Francis, Agnes and other famous designers.

Boys' Suits .- 2nd Floor, rear. Boys' Sailor Suits, made of red, brown, navy and royal English serge, sizes 3 to 10 years, value $4.50; our price Boys' Sailor Suits; with extra trousers, made of the best English serge, sizes 3 to 10 years, value $5.50; our price $2.97.

Offer Tuesday in their Untrimmed Hat Department hull street, Brooklyn, on Wednesday, J 24, at 9 A. M. Thence to St. Peter's Chu Hicks and Warren streets.

woman to wash finnels and do family starching.

GIRL WANTED to work in laundry store. Pal-nade Laundry, 2315 8th ave., near 125th st.

LAUNDRY GIRL to do marking; who has been in laundry before preferred. Call 995 1st ave. LAUNDROSS; good girl, to help in kitchen. Charles Beckmann, 146 Pearl st., near Wall. Charles Beckmann, 146 Pearl st., near Wall.

LAUNDRESS—Girl, strong, go to country; must be good laundress. Oppler, 61 W. 116th.

LAUNDRESS—A first-class laundress, at once white or colored. 144 Madison ave.

White or colored. 144 Madison ave.

MARKER and assorter wanted for laundry office; must be experienced. 1433 Bedford ave.,

Brooklyn.

WASHING—Girl for plain washing and cleaning; $16; evenings and Sunday off. Apply club-house, 45 W. 42d.

YOUNG LADIDS to learn marking in laundry must write good hand. 505 Columbus ave.
YOUNG GIRL, to assist in marking and sorting.
Crescent Laundry, 266 9th ave.